Surprise Video, Extended Mart

For the Beginners Corner this month Dave Weisbart will give a report on the 2005 Ward Francillon Time Symposium that is to take place on October 27-29 in Houston.

I'm haven't decided on the main program for this month yet. Videos are ordered from National but haven't arrived yet so come to the meeting and be surprised. You never know what it will be.

This is elections month. Please come and participate in the selection of new directors and officers!

Also, don't forget this month we will have a 2 hour mart from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00p.m. so show up early and look for that special buy or just to chat with friends old and new.

—Bob Linkenhoker

We thanked Annette for the refreshments and note that the board meeting will be at the home of Julie Stevens.

Bob Linkenhoker hosted the Beginner's Corner, "Threading Standards." As a side note, Bob and Cora Lee celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, October 8, 2005.

Our featured program was a video, "Time – The Underlying Order."

Show & Tell began with the letter, "T". Charles Register displayed two Tiffany Men's Dress watches. Very nice!

Message from the president

We're Silver!

Congratulations are in order for the membership, board and officers of Chapter 69! We have received the Silver Recruitment Award for having signed up fifty new members. Wow! That's quite an accomplishment. National has also acknowledged our recent donation to headquarters.

With that said, I'd like to remind the membership of our two-hour mart this month, and I'd like to encourage participation by all.

Please, members, pledge your continued support as we are about to take on a new slate of officers. Volunteers are still needed for a couple of position.

And let's all keep up the great recruitment efforts which are the lifeblood of our organization. Thank you.

—Charles Register

Paul Wilson brought a Bicentennial clock that was left behind in a house. It is an electric clock, made in 1976, with one hand, using a design by Ben Franklin.

Door prizes were won by Dave Weisbart, Les Lesovsky and Pat Becker.
